

BMMS Band Parent Volunteer Sign-Up

The band program at Bennett's Mill Middle School is very active throughout the year, with many opportunities for you to help the band director and students. A member of each band family (age 18 or over) is obligated to volunteer on a committee or for an event at least one time during the school year. Below is a list of several positions and activities that will need volunteers. Please provide your contact information and choose from the list below. You may sign up for more than one activity. Please return this form no later than 9/3/2013.
